

GOLDEN WEDDING.

MR. AND MRS. J. J. WOODS

On Friday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woods, of 26 York Street, Fairfield, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at a social evening in the King's Hall, Fairfield West. There were 150 guests present, some coming from as far as Lismore, some having been guests at their wedding fifty years before. The function was arranged by the family and great credit is due to them for the wonderful party given in honor of their parents.

As the guests-of-honor entered the hall, little Baby Goodacre (a grand daughter) presented Mrs. Woods with beautiful basket of flowers, whilst the gathering applauded this very fine couple in no uncertain manner.

Dancing and some excellent musical items kept everyone in happy vein. Supper was served, buffet style, the sumptuous repast being supplied by Yuille's, of Auburn. The beautiful cake that took pride of place on the special table reserved for the "bridal party" was made by Mrs. Osborne (daughter).

Mr. Trevena, proposing the toast of "The Bride and Bridegroom," referred eulogistically to the sterling qualities of Mr. and Mrs. Woods, and said their Christian homelife was very splendidly reflected by their family.

All nine members of the family were present, namely, Violet (Mrs. Osborne), Ann (Mrs. Martin), Isobel (Mrs. Slender), Lily (Mrs. Windsor), Eva (Mrs. Jackson), Dorothy (Mrs. Goodacre), Max, Dave and Bill.

The lovely array of presents spoke volumes of the love and respect for this popular pair who have, incidentally, lived in Fairfield for 48 years.
